With the death of a loved one comes the realization that there are many important family matters to be settled, and many business and financial decisions to be made. To assist the person who is called upon to settle the estate of the deceased relative or friend, we have compiled the following information.

CANADA PENSION PLAN

When an Old Age Security (OAS) and Canada Pension Plan (CPP) beneficiary dies, their benefits must be cancelled. Benefits are payable for the month in which the death occurs; benefits received after that will have to be repaid. Please have the Social Insurance Number ready if you call.

MAKE SURE PEACE OF MIND IS IN THE PICTURE

A pre-planned funeral or memorial service can give you peace of mind, knowing your loved ones won't need to make difficult decisions at a time of loss.

I am writing this note to introduce Linda Mizuguchi, our Family Care Counsellor. Linda is a Certified Preplanning Consultant, and an expert in the area of pre-arranging, which is an important part of the estate planning process. She is available with information and can assist you to put a plan in place, providing peace of mind for you and your loved ones.

Should you decide to pre-fund your funeral expenses, Linda can explain the various payment options that would lock in costs. Funeral Pre-planning is a wise decision and a gift for those you love.

To learn more, please do not hesitate to call or email. I have every confidence Linda will be able to assist you and answer any questions you may have.

Yours Truly,

Rob McCormick, Owner
